WHO IS CAPPY?

Our customers always ask "Who is Cappy?" Cappy Quinn was old Maine stock, born and brought up on Eagle Island in Penobscot Bay. For many years he was a familiar face around the Camden waterfront, always willing to give a helping hand to anyone in need. To us, he gave his love of the bay, of boats, and of life. Nothing gave us more pleasure than reminiscing with Cappy about the old days and old boats of Maine long gone. He taught us about pride and we hope your experience here shows that.

We Warmly Invite You . . .

to celebrate with us 30 years of great food, great times, and great people. Through the years our customers have become our friends. I dedicate this year to you, our customers, and to our staff who have served us well.

Our Commitment

Our commitment is to "EAT LOCALLY." We bring to your table as much locally produced food as possible. We support Maine farms! We recycle our oil to heat homes and use "GREEN" products wherever we can. We pledge to assure you of a clean and comfortable environment.

Cappy's Bakery (seasonal)

Open daily, offering sourdough, French, and other great breads, cookies, croissants, yummy pastries, and picnic lunches. Yes, we have Cappy's Jams, Salad Dressings, Chowder, Hot Mustard, and a great selection of Cappy's Shirts and Hats. You can also order online. Shipyard Beer and a fine selection of wines are also available.
